I understand that as a volunteer, I may be required to lift heavy objects, perform strenuous physical labor, work in various weather conditions from extreme cold to excessive heat. Volunteer duties may include but are not limited to: Speaking with visitors about the farm, discussing our mission as well as fund-raising outreach, cleaning and setting up for public events, light and heavy property clean-up, feeder-area raking, morning/evening chores, small construction projects, errand-running, etc. (Circle one) Y N

I fully understand that work performed at Broken Shovels Farm can potentially be dangerous and will be unpaid. I will not be reimbursed for my time or gifts contributed to Broken Shovels Farm. If running errands for the farm in my personal vehicle, I agree to keep the state-required minimum insurance on my vehicle. By signing this agreement, I will hold harmless Broken Shovels Farm, owners, management, volunteers and animals from any and all liability in the event of personal injury or damage to my personal property while I am at Broken Shovels Farm or participating in any activities, events, errands or other duties for the organization whether it be on-site or off-site.

Please be prepared to show your current driver license or state ID.
